Lab Manager (H/F)

Contract type: Fixed-term contract
Renewable contract: Yes
Level of qualifications required: Graduate degree or equivalent
Function: Support functions
Corps d'accueil: Ingénieur d'Etudes (IE)
Level of experience: From 3 to 5 years

Context

The ArticuLab, a research group that is a part of the project-team ALMAnaCH at Inria Paris (France), is seeking a lab manager to manage the group's projects.

The mission of the ArticuLab is to study human interaction in social and cultural contexts as the input into computational systems that in turn help us to better understand human interaction, and to improve and support human capabilities in areas that really matter. For more information the ArticuLab, see its website: http://articulab.hcii.cs.cmu.edu/.

Assignment

Placed under the hierarchical responsibility of the project team leader and under the functional responsibility of the ArticuLab group's lead, the lab manager ensures administrative oversight of ArticuLab projects in accordance with the institution's rules and procedures.

The lab manager participates in defining and implementing an action plan consistent with the assigned responsibilities, objectives, and human and material resources

SPECIFIC NATURE OF THE POSITION

- Continuous coordination with the ArticuLab group lead and close coordination with the project team leader.
- Management of relationships with partners.
- Combination of communication and management tasks.
- Potential travel within Paris and across France if needed for the projects.
- Required on-site presence for a minimum of 4 days per week.

Main activities

Administrative management

- Organize and coordinate group members, human resources, logistics, technical and material resources necessary to achieve project objectives.
- Participate in the recruitment process (job descriptions creation, candidate pre-selection) and management of interns hired for the projects in coordination with the team members.
- Manage job applications for project personnel recruitment.
- Organize and lead project meetings involving various stakeholders.
- Draft progress reports related to the projects' status.
- Contribute to the smooth execution of experiments in the context of the projects: manage participant recruitment and data collection, storage, and processing.
- Establish and maintain relationships with schools, after-school programs, museums, healthcare centers, and other research partners in France and abroad.
- Act as the main point of contact for these partners and ensure effective and continuous communication.
- Assist with lab visitor reception.
- Contribute to the creation of annual reports and surveys, ensuring compliance with reporting requirements, both for the Articulab group and the project team.

Communication of Project Results
• Organize or participate in organizing activities to increase the visibility of ArticuLab group projects and ensure accessibility of share-able data and project results.
• Develop internal and external communications in collaboration with the Paris Inria marketing and communications team

This list of activities is not exhaustive and may evolve based on the group's priorities.
